Substantial Increase is Decided Upon at Conference With Mine Managers.

committee of 15 representing the employees of the big mining companies here, which begin on February 17 and meeting duity, came to an end has night. The committee minimously agreed with the managers on a wage state to govern this district.

Good feeling was shown on both sides, the managers giving a practical demonstration of their desire to make conditions as satisfactory as possible to the employes.

Muss meetings of employes are to be teld tonight and tomorrow in the tirree towns and will ratify the action of their committees.

The companies agreed to give the employes the following increase in wages over the wage schedule now in affect, the present sliding scale to remain ag effect:

Employes now receiving on a 12 cent base between 20 1-2 and 24 cents as hour, are to receive an increase of 10 percent when copper sells at 13 cents are nor over, with a minimum wage of 32. Those receiving on a 12 cent base between 25 and 33 1-3 cents an hour, are given an increase of 10 percent.

Those peccliving on the 13 cent base, between 25 and 33 1-3 cents an hour, are given an increase of 15 percent when copper sells at 13, 14, 15, or 15 cents.

The same class of employee receive an increase of 16 percent when copper sells at 13, 14, 15, or 16 cents.

Those receiving, on the 13 cent base, between 15 and 37 cents an hour, are given an increase of 5 percent when copper sells at 13, 14, 15, or 16 cents.

The same class of employee receive an increase of 16 percent when copper sells at 13, 14, 15, or 16 cents.

26 cents for the month, laborers is sight hours get $3.05; miners, 7.1-hours, $4.01; muckers, 7.1-2 hours, $3.20 timbermen, 7.1-2 hours, $4.20; carpenters, eight hours, $5.60, and boller makers, eight hours, $5.60.

War Baby Appears Also In Holland, But Not So Prominent As In England

The Hague, Netherlands, Feb. 26.—
be 'war haby,' about which there as so much talk in Emgland at an arlier stage of the war, is not unawn in Holland. While the Netherlands are not actually at war, an thing of over 200,000 mem has been surfered in all parts of the country size August 1, 1211. The official statics, just issued, consequently show that there was an increase in the pumer of illegitimate births in the first mounts of last year, although not considerable one and not recorded a every province, two or three of the revinces even showing a decrease as

n several other features of its vital tilstics. Holland is no exception to a sceneral modern tendency. There a been a gradual fall in the birth te, an improvement year by year al mortality rate, and a steady incase in the number of divorces.

Sarah Bernhardt Returns To Paris; Now Looks the Old Woman She Really Is

Paris, France, Feb. 26.- Sarah Barner triumpins in Loudon. She calls it she seating." Many younger persons of ould call it hard work, for she is no erywhere, assisting everybody, viscing to wounded soldiers, collecting oney, putting new life into familian the committees.

Her great serrow is that her doctors pursuingerity forbade her going to merica.

cremporily forbade her going to merica.
Sarah Barnhardt now looks like the de woman she is. She shows her real se with its wrinkles and furrows. She as done nothing to appear younger, he recembles Konstrandtz famous portait of his mother.

But to see Sarah play now is more pathologic study than a noenic expernice. She is so far beyond good or all art, no measures counts here; she is the same time sublime and ridie-lous. She is merely Sarah, the aged oman, who is still the greatest actress the world.
